

FRIENDS OF THE RIVERFRONT

Increase awareness and engagement with the Pittsburgh region's rivers and riverfronts through activities, stewardship, and expansion of water and land trails.

GO-WITH-THE-FLOW E-NEWS BLAST

Greetings from Friends of the Riverfront

We are glad you're engaged and tuned into the exciting developments happening on and along the Three Rivers Heritage Trail and Water Trail systems. Please take a moment to renew your membership for 2006 online by clicking HERE. We'd like to send you a free Friends of the Riverfront t-shirt as a thank you for your support.

$50,000 Check Presentation for Water Trail Landing

Friends of the Riverfront, the City of Pittsburgh and the PA Fish and Boat Commission are proud to announce the latest development in the Three Rivers Water Trail (TRWT) system on the southern bank of the Monongahela River at 4th Street. The TRWT is a network of kayak and canoe river access sites along all three rivers in the Pittsburgh Pool.

Join us on Thursday, November 16th at 1:00 pm on the Southside Trail at 4th Street (off of East Carson Street) on the Monongahela River in Pittsburgh's Historic Southside. Key remarks by Mayor Luke Ravenstahl and Scott Bollinger of the PA Fish and Boat Commission.

North Shore Trail—Peace Garden Site Furniture

Trail users along the North Shore segment of the Three Rivers Heritage Trail may have already noticed something new. Friends of the Riverfront and Richard Michaels of Compassionate Friends have just finished installation of a new space overlooking the Allegheny River. Complete with a park bench and rubbish receptacle, the site furniture is oriented with a view of the Unkillable Human Sculpture giving visitors to the Peace Garden a place to contemplate.

NEW Heritage Trail Map and Activity Guide— Available

Friends of the Riverfront is proud to announce the development of a new comprehensive guide to the Three Rivers Heritage Trail and Water Trail system. The new guide includes up to date information on current and future trail development, nearby amenities including bike friendly establishments, trailhead

November 6th, 2006

Thanks to everyone who joined Friends of the Riverfront during the annual Trail Mix(er) a party to celebrate the rivers and riverfront activities.

Photographic exhibit of Heritage Trail images by Renee Rosensteel

Tarot card reading and future prognostications by Barbara Campsic

Music by Life-in-Balance and Ras Prophet current and future trail development, nearby amenities including bike friendly establishments, trailhead facilities and interpretive signage. Request your free trail map today! friends@friendsoftheriverfront.org call 412.488.0212 or click HERE for online viewing.

Pop City Article — C'mon take a Free Ride

Pittsburgh is fast becoming one of the best places to bike. Why not with miles of trail, great City Parks and an emerging bike route system. Read more in an article by Jen Saffron of Pop City by clicking HERE.

Pittsburgh Triathlon and Adventure Race - Dates

Friends of the Riverfront and managing partner Piranha Sports is proud to announce preliminary dates for the 2007 Pittsburgh Triathlon and Adventure Race to be held in July on Saturday 14th & Sunday 15th. Additional details will soon follow.

If you would like to be removed from our e-mail list, please send an e-mail to friends@friendsoftheriverfront.org and write REMOVE in the title. Friends of the Riverfront does not sell or share its e-mail list with any other organization.