2009 YEAR-IN-REVIEW

Thank you for your continued membership with Friends of the Riverfront. We are fortunate to have your support and encouragement to increase public access and activity along our region's riverfronts. Take a moment to review the following year in perspective and outlook for 2010. As you will read, we're building new sections of trails, increasing public riverfront access and actively engaging volunteers in stewardship programs. All of this continues to be made possible through your generosity and commitment to Friends of the Riverfront's mission. Together we can make the Pittsburgh region a great place to live, work and play.
